The mini-roos coaching course is aimed at volunteer parents and coaches working with novice players or players aged approximately up to ten (10) years old.

The session is entirely practical and encourages the coach to create games based on enjoyment. The focus is on learning by playing football. The secret to encouraging players to develop a love for the game without coaching is to organise enjoyable football activities.

The coaches' exposure to fundamental game rules and guidance on creating an enjoyable and safe football environment.

These courses are 'free' of charge and are open to all coaches, team managers and parents who are involved in Mini-Roo's age groups 5-10 years of age.
