FOOTBALL NSW INSURANCE PROGRAM 2026

February Update – includes Insurance Handbook

The following is provided for FNSW affiliated Clubs and Associations, and Association member clubs only.

Important Insurance Documents

These documents are for Clubs, Associations and Association member clubs only:

- FNSW Associations & Clubs Insurance Summary 2026
- FNSW Association & Clubs Insurance Handbook 2026 – see ATTACHED.

Personal Accident Insurance

Provides cover for registered participants in FNSW sanctioned activities for non-Medicare medical expenses, loss of income, capital benefits and other policy benefits.

Claims are lodged via the online claims portal. Information about the Personal Accident insurance and claims process is available on the FNSW Insurance website.

Injured Participant Enquiries

Refer all injured participant enquiries to:

- FNSW Insurance website
- FNSW Participant Insurance Summary 2026
- Gow-Gates insurance enquiries – Ph: 02 8267 9999

Public Liability Insurance

Provides cover to help protect insured entities in the event that a third party claims they have suffered a serious injury, or their property has been damaged due to the insured's negligence.

Refer to the attached FNSW Association and Club Handbook for further information.

Public Liability Certificates of Currency

The 2026 public liability insurance Certificates of Currency (CoCs) are available online – click here

Management Liability Insurance

Provides cover to help protect insured entities and their Directors and Officers against alleged or actual Wrongful acts. This is a 'claims made' policy which requires the insured entity to notify Gow-Gates if at any time it becomes aware of circumstances which may result in a claim under the policy. Refer to the attached FNSW Association and Club Handbook for further information.

Risk Management Resources

These are available on the FNSW Insurance website:

- Match Day ground inspection checklist
- Safe Football Poster
- FA Perform+ injury prevention program
- Videos for associations and clubs:
 - What is Duty of Care (2 min video)
 - Risk Management (2 min video)
 - What is personal accident insurance? (2 min video)
