

History of 12 Girls Division 3 Competition Results

Introduction

This volume presents a comprehensive summary of the results and historical development of the 12 Girls Division 3 competition, which commenced in 2026. It forms part of a broader record of the evolution of girls' football within our junior competitions.

Origins and Expansion of Girls' Football

Girls-only competitions began in 1996 with the introduction of a 16-year age group. This expanded steadily:

- 1998: 17 Girls introduced
- 1999: 18 Girls introduced
- 2000: 14 Girls commenced
- 2001: 12 Girls competition established

Over subsequent seasons, Mini Roo Girls competitions were added, beginning with 11, and progressively expanding to younger age groups. By 2024, the association was able to offer a 6 Girls competition, completing the full junior pathway.

Competition Structure – Under 12 Girls

Until 2024, the Under 12 Girls competition was played in the traditional 11 v 11 format. Where necessary, grading matches were conducted prior to the season; otherwise, competitions consisted of 18 rounds followed by a finals series. Grading matches are excluded from the statistical records in this volume.

In 2024, the competition transitioned to the 9 v 9 small-sided format, aligning with recommendations from Football NSW (FNSW) and Football Australia (FA). Despite this structural change, grading and competitive league play were retained in our region.

Club Identity Changes

- 2026: Shellharbour JFC renamed to Shellharbour City FC

- ^ — team played a match earlier than scheduled
- # — issue affecting points, goals, or a forfeit

- (A) Two-week, Top 4 knockout
- (B) Three-week, Top 4 major/minor semi-final system
- (C) Three-week, Top 6 format
- (D) Cross-pool qualifier followed by format (B)
